

Wan - Bio

Ms. Wan has 40 years of experience in performing and managing environmental studies for permitting, construction and operation of power generation plants, specialized in siting, feasibility study, dispersion meteorology, and environmental impact assessment. For the past decade, her focus was on generation of new nuclear power plants.

Ms. Wan is an appointed Bechtel Fellow since 1996. She is proactive in professional and technical society activities. She holds an AMS Emeritus Member Status and is a long-term NUMUG.