

Update on IRPA-11 Meeting &
ICRP New Recommendations

David W. Miller & Jason Harris, NATC, University of Illinois
College of Engineering, 103 S. Goodwin Ave., Urbana, Illinois 61801

Abstract:

The IRPA-11 Meeting held in May, 2004 in Madrid, Spain provided an excellent international forum to discuss the new recommendations being issued in 2005 by ICRP. This paper discusses the new ICRP recommendations including the proposed limits for exposures to non-humans. The discussion from the participants at the ICPR meeting is discussed. Also, the potential impacts of the new ICRP recommendations on US nuclear power plants are outlined.